

College of Health and Human Sciences

Mission and Commitment

The College is committed to prepare graduates who promote health, enhance the human condition and enter careers that will benefit society.

Faculty fulfill this mission by offering dynamic programs & courses responsive to physical and social needs in both local and global communities.